

TENTH EDITION

20c

Dedicated to the 201st Battalion

To whom the profits from the Sale of this song go for recruiting purposes.

I'LL COME BACK TO YOU

WHEN MY FIGHTING DAYS ARE THROUGH

LIEUT.-COLONEL
E. W. HAGARTY

OFFICER
COMMANDING

Words and Music by Frank O. Madden

Arranged by Jules Brazil

Published for the Composer by

W. R. DRAPER - 12 Pearl Street

Toronto - - - Canada

I'LL COME BACK TO YOU

3

Words & Music by FRANK O. MADDEN
Arr. by Jules Brazil

Marcia

VOICE

PIANO

ff

A sol - dier boy en - list - ed And to bat - tle march'd a - way, To Our bat - tle fleets have con - quor'd all the seas from pole to pole, Our mf

fight for King and coun - try 'mid the thick - est of the fray Came the arm - ies num - ber mil - lions but we need them ev - 'ry soul, But we

Copyright Canada }
U. S. A. Copyright } 1918 Frank O. Madden British Copyright Secured

call for re - in - force-ments, — and the reg-iments march'd a long, — Then can - not win by wait - ing, — and it cant be done by few, — All to the girl he left be - hind he sang this part - ing song, men must go to meet the foe, my love, I fight for you.

Chorus

p-f Fare you well I must go lit-tle dar - ling, — Though this part - ing is hard dear to bear; — But the boys in the trench-es are call - ing, — I must go my du-ty calls me there, Dry those tears from your eyes-little dar-ling, You must smile and be brave while I'm gone For I'll

rit. come back to you when my fight-ing days are through, a tempo And the war for our lib-er-ty is won. Fare you won. D.S.

81661